Define Such a Man

*Such a man can't be defined by words alone;
How can you define the love, joy and peace he has given to the people he's known?*

*A man of his word who holds strongly to what he believes;
A husband who loves, cherishes, and caters to a wife in need.
From the laughter in his eye to the seriousness of his lessons;
A brother to lean on, a confidant for one's confessions.
There's not many ways you can define a man as noble and strong;
A father to those whose fathers were long gone.
From fixing cars to helping to heal a broken heart;
A friend who's there at the end, but stayed from the start.
To have someone as you a part of my life is hard to believe;
I can only pray that I'm half the man you didn't have to be.

 The Obituary **

Andy G. Bradsher, son of Louise Bradsher and the late Henry Bradsher, was born April 2, 1950, in Person County, North Carolina, and departed this life on May 7, 2013, in Duke Homecare and Hospice in Durham, NC.

He became a member of New Ephesus Baptist Church at an early age and served faithfully. Upon marrying his wife, he moved his membership to Olive Grove Baptist Church where he served on the Deacon Board, as well as other boards and committees and sang in the choir. With the leadership of the Holy Spirit, Andy later moved his membership to Mount Bethel Baptist Church where he remained a faithful worker for as long as his health allowed. He was a Deacon, worked with Relay for Life, attended Bible Study and Sunday school, and supported all church projects with a willingness to help with any and all programs that uplifted our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

He leaves to cherish his memory and to live by his example his wife of 23 years, Minister Celestine Bradsher; three sons: Andy Junior Bradsher (Echel) of Seattle WA, Elliott D. M^cCain (Kisha), and Chances Beates of Roxboro NC; one daughter, Brenda White (Gray) of Seattle WA; his mother, Louise Bradsher; one sister, Stella Williams; two brothers: William Bradsher (Glenda) and Jerry Bradsher (Faye); six sisters-in-law: Evelyn M^cCain, Elizabeth M^cCain, Pastor Becky Poole (Pastor Ted Poole), Jackie Hamlett (Pastor Daryl Hamlett), and Minister Tonia Cunningham (Tony), all of Roxboro NC, and Joyce Thorpe of Durham NC; three brothers-in-law: Sam M^cCain (Carrie), Harvey M^cCain of Roxboro NC, and Ronald Clayton of Capital Heights MD; a special nephew, Isaac M^cCain; close friends: Samuel Blackwell, Joe McGhee, Rick McKey, Tyrone Blackwell and his fishing buddy, Tony Hunt; eleven grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, eight aunts, and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving family members and friends.
